Seven Contestants Will Compete In Rally Talent Show

Three Silver Awards
Given Winners
Thursday

Bob Sweeney, Mary Jane May, Harold Jacobs, Bud Chandler, Jane Callum, Johnnie Pichotto, and Milt Bronstein will compete in the second annual rally parade finals which will be held Thursday from 11 until 1 o'clock in the gymnasium with Head Yell Leader Hal Delma acting chairman.

SONGS PRESENTED

Songs will be presented by Bob Sweeney, Bud Chandler, and Jane Callum. Mary Jane May will give a dance number and Harold Jacobs will present a series of imitations. Johnnie Pichotto will render selections on the harmonica and Milt Bronstein will present impersonations by musical arrangements.

TROPHIES AWARDED

Three silver trophies will be awarded the first three contestants judged best. The awards will be made through the courtesy of Mr. Arnold Samson, manager of the Jenkel Jewelers at 150 Post Street. Delma states that the rally will be an enthusiastic one because of the combined football awards and the rally talent finals.

News Guild Selects Chapter Sponsor

Selection of Mrs. Ruth Witt-Dianna as sponsor, and approving the report of the Executive Board constitution committee were the business affairs conducted by the American Newspaper Guild at the last regular meeting of the organization held at noon in the Publication Office yesterday.

"The constitution has been officially approved by the Student Executive Committee," stated President Tim Guiney.

Activities for the coming year were discussed and plans for several meetings with the local San Francisco Guild formulated.

Officers in the organization are: President, Guiney; vice-president, Louise Vallarino; secretary, Jean Dooley, and treasurer, Bill Buchan.

French Club Holds Noon Dance, Raffle

Fran Twohig, chairman of the noon dance committee, yesterday announced that the prize for the best noon dance of the semester will be given at the awards rally tomorrow. The trophy has been donated by Granat Brothers.

Today's dance is sponsored by the French club, which will conduct its penny raffle during the dance.

DEBATERS MEET IOWA STATE SQUAD HERE

As a fitting climax to a successful season of debating, the San Francisco State forensic squad met the debating varsity from Iowa State Teachers' College last Thursday in the club rooms of the Commonwealth Club in the Palace Hotel.

The team representing State in the vocal argumentation was composed of State's two number one debaters, Bill Rose and Patricio Megino, who upheld the negative side of the Pi Kappa Delta, national debating honorary fraternity, question, "Resolved: That the National Labor Relations Board should be given power to enforce arbitration in all industrial labor disputes."

NON-DECISION DEBATE

Although the debate was non-decision, the members of the Commonwealth Club, Mr. Shull, Dr. Roberts, and the State debaters Prison debaters of San Quentin State Prison will meet State's forensic representatives on Sunday morning, January 30, when Bill Rose, Bob Links, and Cliff North, cross words with the prisoners on the neutrality question.

present were well pleased with the quality of argumentation put forward by Rose and Megino, many expressing such opinions as that stated by one witness, that State "pinned their ears back."

This season State has participated in debates with every major institution of higher learning from San Francisco to Los Angeles, including such teams as the crack U. S. C. team, U. C. L. A., Stanford, U. C., S. F. J. C., Pasadena J. C., U. S. F., Los Angeles Jaycee, Menlo Jaycee, Saint Mary's, Santa Clara, and ended the season with the public debate with the Iowa State visitors from Cedar Falls.

ELECT OFFICERS

Next Thursday at 11:00 o'clock the semi-annual elections for officers of the debating fraternity, Delta Sigma, will be held.

Bib 'N' Tucker Installs

Installation of new officers of Bib 'n' Tucker will be held at a special dinner on January 25. Those officers to be installed in office are president, Peggy Clifford; vice-president, Betty DeVoe; treasurer, Virginia Stolte; secretary, Pauline Quirk; A. W. S., Victoria Regier; historian, Dorothy Rothe.

Committee in charge of the affair is headed by Betty Brown and includes Victoria Regier and Joan Smith. Dorothy Lavelle is present president of the club.

Building Funds Promised For State Campus

Governor Asks Student's Cooperation

According to the latest reports obtained from Bill Smith, chairman of the Strategy Committee, Governor Merriam has promised the committee and the student body of State college an appropriation for new college buildings, providing the committee and the student body carry out every request made by the Governor. These requests have been carried out, and it is now up to the Governor to redeem his promise.

WORD EXPECTED

It is fully expected that this week will bring word from Sacramento that the appropriation has been approved. The appropriation of from $750,000 to $800,000 has been formally recommended by Walter Dexter, State supervisor of Education.

A written statement has been made by the W.P.A. to the effect that they will back the project with an appropriation matching the one made by the state. This backing is being offered because the recent recession has brought about an urgent need for W.P.A. projects.

APPROPRIATION FUND

The money will come out of an appropriation fund of two million dollars secured from various modifications of a seven million dollar bill providing for state prisons and other such institutions.

Plans concerning the use of the money include the building of a new auditorium, administration building, gymnasium, library, and student union house. It is hoped that State College will be able to secure the title to Roberts Field.

GOOD PROSPECTS

"The prospects of securing the money, and putting the building project into effect are better at the present time than they have been for ten years, but the student body is being organized in such a way that, in case the State does not react as soon as it is hoped, a certain amount of prompting can be put into effect," says Bill Smith.

An invitation to speak at State College during the month of January has been sent to Walter Dexter and it is hoped that it will be possible for him to oblige.

N.Y.A. Applications Taken For Semester

Application for N. Y. A. work next semester must be made before the beginning of the semester, January 31. It is doubtful that there will be any opening in the Women's division as the quota is full.

January assignments are now out and anyone not receiving theirs will please get in touch with the office of the Dean of Women.

Plea Denied Vain Fight Waged Finals Win

Last minute reprieves were denied the fourteen hundred students of San Francisco State College today. Date of finals remained fixed at January 8 to January 15 for upper division students and January 8 to January 21 inclusive.

HOPELESS FIGHT

Legal representatives of the student body continued the hopeless fight to escape the finals ordeal. Rallying to the cause were such legal lights as Frank Muldoon, Lewis Morris, and Alverius O'hara.

"They can't do this to us," declared Alverius as he dropped from a puff of smoke. "They can't do it to me anyway," he declared, "I'm not registered here."

NO HOPE

The other two legal authorities were not as hopeful. In fact Muldoon declared, "They have us stopped; we can't see anyway of stopping the finals."

Morris was non-committal. "I still think finals are not a true evaluation of the amount of knowledge gathered during the course of the semester. If you want my candid opinion I believe that the system is obsolete and should be replaced by some modern system." (Note to Lew Morris: Hope this quote meets with your approval. Your ghost writer).

STUDENTS BRAVE

The doomed students showed a brave front to an expectant world. Some were slightly dazed by the shock of the nearness of the execution date, others were oblivious to anything, while a scant few were sticking their chins out in anticipation.

Noticeable effects was a rush business at the library with books on how to study getting the most play.

Civil Service Exam. Dates Are Released

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 29—Offerings of Supervising Catalog Librarians to enter the State service, the State Personnel Board has announced examinations for the positions of Supervising Catalog Librarian and Senior Blind Section Librarian, to be held on Saturday, January 8, 1938.

Definite appointments will be made from the eligible lists based on the results of the examinations.

To be eligible for admission to the examination for Supervising Catalog Librarian, a position that pays $190 a month, applicants must have been graduated from college and possess a certificate showing the completion of one additional year in an accredited library school. In addition to the educational requirements, candidates must have had three years of professional library experience, at least two years of which must have been in cataloging work in a public library having at least 150,000 volumes or in a college or university library.

24 Blocks Given To State Gridders At Awards Rally

Hal Beseman, Harkness, Finish Collegiate Football
Competition, Will be Awarded
State Blankets

By ERNIE MIGUEL

The climax of the initiation ceremonies for the stalwarts of the 1937 Gater football varsity will take place tomorrow at noon in the women's gymnasium when blocks, blankets and sweaters will be presented. Every year at the end of the football season and the determination of the block winners, the initiation to the society is begun with the week of hazing and the wearing of the dresses by the winners, and is ended by the formal presentation of the blocks.

PUB DINNER FRIDAY; NEW EDITORS NAMED

Names of those selected by the Board of Publications for staff positions on the Golden Gater for next semester, will be announced at the semi-annual Publications Dinner to be held Friday evening at the Cafe El Portal. A local newspaperman, final selection not having been made as yet, will be guest speaker of the evening. Awards will also be made by Howard Demeke, master of ceremonies, to Cliff Worth and Hal Widney, out-going editor and business manager respectively.

SURPRISE PROMISED

Bill Buchan, editor of 1938 Franciscan, and Almarie Porteous, chairman of the dinner, promise amusing surprises for the evening. Following the program, dancing will be offered the guests.

Almarie Porteous, aided by her committee of Jean Dooley and Connie Field, have arranged decorations in keeping with the journalistic theme. Those planning on attending should contact the chairman as soon as possible. The fee of 75c for the dinner will be collected in advance.

A.W.S. Holds Meeting To Get Acquainted

In order to get in closer contact with the women of State and to get their ideas and criticisms, A. W. S. is holding a meeting on Thursday of the first week of the new semester at 11:00 in Annex B. All women are requested to attend in order to cast their votes on important issues.

A. W. S. is sending every girl a questionnaire asking her to serve in committee work and to state her preferences. All volunteers will be assigned to some committee.

At the end of a semester of successful affairs, including the Mass Meeting, the combined A. W. S.-A. M. S. dance, and work of the Welfare Committee, President Frances Bolander extends her thanks to the various clubs for the capable representatives they selected for this semester's work.

24 BLOCKS GIVEN

This year 24 blocks will be presented, including blankets for "Old Faithful" Harkness and "Hard-Hitting" Hal Beseman, both of whom have finished their collegiate football competition, sweaters for Charlie Iago, consistent yard gainer in the Gater backfield; Al "Sure-foot" Thompson, whose kicking has

Fix Programs Early, Request

"Students enrolling for the Spring term can do their bit toward helping the registration off toward a quick start by having their programs made out before they come to the Gymnasium on Friday morning, January 28, to enroll," stated Betty Creon, chairman of the Registration Committee.

Registration will start with the distribution of booklets at 7:30 a.m. and will close at 4:00.

Chairmen of the various sub-committees and their functions are as follows:

Gymnasium Committee—Chairman, Dorothy Lavelle. This group has charge of signing students into courses. Counter and Files Committee—Chairman, Muriel Senk. Members of this group will assist Miss Mang in the Registration Office. Poster and Publicity—Chairman, Deana Witte. The handling of publicity, and making of posters will be this committee's duties. Traffic Chairman, Gaetano Stella. This committee will keep order during registration; and Information Chairman, Gladys Ketterlin. Members of this committee will be stationed at all strategic points to give out any information wanted by enrolling students.

EDITORIALS

Editorials and feature articles in the Golden Gater reflect only the writer's opinion. They make no claim to represent student or administration opinion. All unsigned editorials are by the Editor.

Volume 25— Finis

When the last of this issue is distributed, my job as editor will end, and volume 25 shall be relegated to history and musty files.

Twenty-four times this semester the Gater has made its appearance, and twenty-four times has been praised and criticized. But the Staff did its best, and this outgoing editor appreciates their effort.

Special praise is due Business Manager Hal Widney and Managing Editors Louise Vallarino and Tim Guiney for the efficient manner in which they handled their jobs.

To the anonymous reporters, who created the endless yards of copy that is the Gater, goes much credit, and the wish that they in turn may rise to editorial positions in the future.

Unfortunately, the names of the Gater executives who will guide the paper for next semester have not been announced, but to them goes the benefit of this semester's errors and successes, and the hope that they may profit and produce a better paper.

Looking back through the files of the Fall '37 Gater, one can see items rise from tidbits to big stories, diminish to trivia as they become cold. Those stories mark the living history of S. F. State college as it was in the making.

The unsuccessful football season,—the Sacramento trip—the play festival—the Junior prom—the Soph strut—the Debate team's season—the A.P.G. convention—the Block "S" Boxing Show—the Music Department concerts—the Strategy committee—those things made the big headlines, but the little stories of teas, minor dances, forums, talks and the like are there too. The composite of all their material has been Gater volume 25, and the chronicle of the news of S. F. State.

This semester's staff tried its best to maintain a proper equilibrium of reader interest all during the semester by proper treatment of this news copy. I hope they succeeded, and that you liked the paper.

Next semester new events, new names and faces will rise to importance in the Gater. May the new staff do better than the old in pleasing you by their handling of this future news.

While wishes are in order, may the basketball and track teams have better seasons than football had. May State and W.P.A. officials agree definitely on co-operation to rebuild our campus and may the turmoil over the coaching staff be definitely settled.

Next semester, the Gater will be full of stories on these subjects. May the new editor handle them so well that they will all come true.

It has been a job to edit the Gater. A real job that took much time, leaving but little for other things. As such, it deserves remuneration. But none was forthcoming, only the satisfaction of creation and the prestige that came with the job. Perhaps future editors will enjoy a modest salary. They deserve it!

Now as the end of the column of type is drawing too close for comfort, thanks to the Board of Publications for the confidence they reposed in me by making me editor, and thanks to all those who guided and assisted me.

I'm finished now, so best of luck to the new editor and his staff, and the Gater.

CLIFFORD WORTH.

So Long, Tools—See You Next Semester!

CO-ED'S CORNER

By SUSIE SCHULTZ

Here we are looking at a new year, finals, and an irate editor; and wondering what makes the wheels go round so fast—wheels of time, of course. We had better clean up all the old year's business.

First of all we want to extend our hand in thanks to little Susie Shultz for pinch-hitting for us the day we were indisposed. It was dogged swell of the lass to expose her stupidity the way she did just to keep the ball rolling. We read her book on "The Love Life of An Oyster" and all we found out was that the darn things don't give a hang about spring or moonlight or anything.

THE RESOLUTIONS OF A TYPICAL CO-ED

To study more, and eat less, and to catch the school Romeo. The first two she writes down and the last one she does. We hate to look back at it, but speaking of the Razz Issue, we were just wondering who the — was who called Co-Ed's Corner Mid-Victorian. Not that it makes any difference or anything. Well, guess it's better to be called Mid-Victorian than not to be called at all. Eh? Opening a bottle of coca cola we proceed to offer the New Year's toasts of a Mid-Victorian.

Here's to Saggitarius, — the mighty hailstorm—who beats down all the little butterflies and posies like O. O. McIntyre, Louella Parsons, Cezanne, and J. Edgar Hoover. He finds nothing above his powers of criticism. We wonder if he likes anything or if he is just ashamed to admit it.

Here's to the Tripe Master—he of the super-inflated ego, the droopy eye-lids, and not enough sleep—who spends all of the time he isn't snooping, shyly admitting his fascination for women—somewhere else.

Here's to the mighty brain-wave—Muldoon—who drools venom at the mention of the fair sex and then takes one of them to lunch. Who has a lot of ideas, a loud voice, and no self control.

Here's to Gallagher — of the checkered trousers, three-for-five cigars, and the green neckties—who flourishes around like the mad hatter, and who has been here for ten years because he has no time to study, thinking up new jokes for Whizz Bang.

We've drained the bottle, so we will forget the rest of our toasts for the present.

Yes, those were all men. Yes, this is still Co-Ed's Corner. Yes, we know it is supposed to be devoted to women's interests. But what interests women more than the subject of men, we ask you?

If it's all right with you, we're going to have one last fling at the regular routine.

FASHIONS

Light shades are in (that is if that's what you had last year). Beige, rust, mustard, suntan, and others will make a light winter, and a boom in the cleaning business. And have you noticed that suits and coats are trimmed with dark fur or material with matching accessories? Lines are about the same with flared skirts and broad shoulders. Clothes seem to be running a little to the dramatic side.

RECIPE

Add a handful of well-beaten reporters and several half-baked columnists to one raw editor. Mix well and flavor freely with carboic acid, and what have you? The Golden Gater.

PERSONALITY

We have been saving this personality until last as a surprise. We are sure you will know her, she is so darned popular. She isn't no raving beauty, but from a distance you'd swear she was Marlene Dietrich. Anyway, her brains make up for her face. Of course she doesn't get all A's, but that's only because she is philosophical and doesn't care about material gains. She is fired with ambition, and even if she doesn't actually do anything about it yet, she is merely saving herself for the big break that is sure to come soon. We hope the break doesn't knock her out. Haven't you guessed yet? The woman of the hour—none other than your reporter.

From This Side

By TIM GUINEY

I can remember the time when I used to believe that as we grow older so do we grow wiser and more mellow. I likened the human being to potentially fine whiskey that ages in wood, increasing in goodness and fermenting in wisdom and knowledge, leaving intolerance and hate for others of lesser intelligence and experience.

Now, however, I can see that that idealism is about as far-fetched as the theories of the absent-minded professor upon the subject of Utopia.

STRUCTURES RUINED

Our idealistic structures, however, were not completely demolished until we read about an illustrious congresswoman from Indiana—Mrs. Virginia Jenckes—who in a speech to the Daughters of the American Revolution, advocated the uprooting of the world-famous Japanese cherry trees in the nation's Capital in Washington, D. C. It is reported that at the conclusion of her speech she was wildly cheered by the good old D.A.R.

Being a representative of the Hoosier State, which specializes in the growing of tall corn and thick skulls, her antics are not surprising. Without a doubt, she is as ferocious as a tigress. Even now, I can see her striding aggressively down the long rows of cherry blossoms, axe in hand, felling each tree with one lusty blow to the midsection. Later, when eager reporters crowd around her for an exclusive story, she will modestly admit that she "did it with her little axe."

SHE'S CRUSADER

Among her other activities, says a national magazine, "Mrs. Jenckes has crusaded for more flagpoles on public buildings, for more playing of the 'Star Spangled Banner' over the radio, for tax exemption on cosmetics and for imported lupines from Germany. A Hollywood press agent helped her."

Mrs. Jenckes' fearless speech is comparable to that of the boy who isn't afraid of anybody because his brother is the best fighter in the neighborhood. Mrs. Jenckes, no doubt, will carry on in her battle to continue the argument with Japan, because if it comes to war, it will be you and I that will have to do the fighting, while Mrs. Jenckes will be a member of the committee selling liberty bonds.

AUDIENCE AS BAD

Her audience, the Daughters of the American Revolution, is a reactionary old club teeming with moss-backs and spinsters riding on a reputation made by progressive men and women of this country who revolted against the merciless rule of England to make this a better land.

If they could see the group that claims their descendancy, they would turn over, not once, but at least three times in their respective graves.

OLD BATTLE-AXE

As for the congresswoman from Indiana, she is a demagogic old battle-axe not unlike to Mamie in the "Moon Mullins" comic strip. I'm sure that in an audition for a strait-jacket, she would be an outstanding success. Either she should be committed to a home for the aged and infirm, or go back and govern Indiana.

One job is about equal to the other.

IN WHICH WE GIVE THANKS:

During the past semester a great many people have helped us in our work and in the manufacturing of this column. So we say a brief word of thanks to Cliff Worth, to Jean Dooley, Dr. Treutlein, Mrs. Monroe, Bill Buchan, Mrs. Witt-Diamant, and to the others who were kind enough to pitch in when the going got tough. And we mustn't forget to thank Alverius O'Hara, either.

So, once again, thanks to everyone.

Seniors Urged To Buy Annual

With but three weeks remaining in the semester, January seniors were urged to reserve their copies of the 1938 Franciscan. Inasmuch as the compulsory fee will not be collected until the start of the spring semester, graduating seniors of the January class must reserve their annuals through the Franciscan office, or through class representatives. No deposits will be taken and the full price will be $1.50, to be paid when the book is reserved.

SAY IT ISN'T SO

By EDEL

College Humor and Mr. Bill Corum, prominent sports writer and I.N.S. staff writer, today released their All-American selections. To an uninitiated picker it would seem very different from the average All-American selection. To an amateur, who dabbles in it occasionally, purely for the fun of it, it would incite a polite snort of derision, and to those who live and breathe it, who pick them in their sleep, and who look in a game for the individual, it is a soul-stirring horror, truly an individual effort by Mr. Corum, in which he is disastrously different.

In Mr. Roosevelt's speech recently he denounced rugged individualism, and at such an example we must echo heartily his sentiment. But who are we to cast caustic remarks at Mr. Corum's "ruggedness." We will let the team speak for itself. Here it is as sent to us for immediate release by the College sports news bureau:

L.G.—Vard Stockton, California.
C.—Ki Aldrich, Texas Christian.
R.G.—Ralph Sivell, Auburn.
R.T.—Al Barbartske, Fordham.
R.E.—Rob't Kenderdine, Indiana.
Q.—Ambrose Schindler, U.S.C.
L.H.—Joseph Kilgrow, Alabama.
R.H.—Clinton Frank, Yale.
F.B.—Marshall Goldberg, Pittsburgh.

If it was put squarely up to us, we would suggest our own Sam Chapman of California, Chuck Sweeny of Notre Dame, Larry King of Minnesota, Wojciechowicz of Fordham, Whizzer White of Colorado, and many more who were neglected in Mr. Corum's picks.

As to our "constructive" criticism, Mr. Corum has prepared for that as he admits that "There are no less than 7 (count 'em) spark plugs in Mr. Corum's eleven. My, we'd like to see it go!"

Jeers will turn to cheers and huzzahs this year when the varsity cagers commence their regular season under the tutelage of Dan Farmer. They'll be no victory starved Gaters this year if the squad lives up to expectations, and they are of the highest.

To those who are not close to the sports picture it would be interesting to note that Jack Fisher and sa Button have graduated from the Jayvees and are playing good ball for Mentor Dan Farmer.

Conscientious is the word for Hopkins. Such a statement could be aptly applied to Daryl Hopkins, as he could be seen jogging about the campus daily by those interested, in preparation for the coming track season.

won many a day for State in the last three years, and for the backbone of the line for the past three seasons, Ralph Kauer, whose name has appeared in print seldom, but whose tackles were felt often by the opponents' backs.

Receiving their second blocks for football service will be the "Mighty Mite" of the backfield, Bob Kelnhofer, Bud Chandler, able signal caller, Dick Osborne, proficient blocking back, Claude Hanrahan, stalwart linesman, Lou Glavich, hard-hitting guard, Sid Fisher, elusive back, and Giles Daniels, husky center.

NEW MEN REWARDED

Newcomers to the State gridiron will be awarded in the persons of Mario Maski, Al Gomez, who will probably be Harkness' successor, Bob Wheeler, Bob Hodgins, Paul Bloom, Frank Jackson, Art Jarl, Iocrates Pantages, James King, George Thayer, and Burchell Glasgow. Bill Rowlands will be presented with his manager's block for service.

The awards will be presented by Athletic Manager Ed Smith, and here will be speeches by the two coaches, Hal Farmer and Dan Harden, and by the Athletic Director, Dean Cox. Regarding the rally, Hal Delma, head yell-leader, said, "As his award rally is given only once every year, everyone should come out and support their athletic representatives when they receive their awards for the service on the gridiron. After all, it's all they receive, and they should have a good attendance at least at this one rally."

BASKETEERS CHAMPS OF INTRAMURAL LEAGUE

High Scoring Casabans Waltz Through Unbeaten

By virtue of a 35-25 victory over the Rover Boys, the Basketeers, led by Joe Sanz, won the intramural basketball championship in convincing style.

Their victories included a 58-27 win over the Purple Flashes, a 54-24 win over the Block "S" and a default victory over the Hoopsters. Besides leading his team to victory, Sanz led the scorers with around 70 points in the three games. Other members included Bloom and Edelstein, who together with Sanz scored every point in the championship game; Rockoff, Black, and others whose names are not available, but who gave excellent service.

Men who stood out in the league and deserve mention as all-intramurals are Sanz, Irwin, Thayer, Collins (Stabber) and Wolff, Fisher and Hal Thompson.

Lusty Ping-Pongers In Final Round

As a final climax to a stirring battle for recognition in the college ping pong tournament just concluded, Shirley Ferman and B. Chinn came from behind to down the strong combination of Pearl Sigrand and "Spider" Turner. They had previously won the privilege of entering the finals by turning in a surprise win over Thelma Rastad and Al Luntz by 21-18 and 21-19 scores.

When told that the winner would be determined by the best three out of five games, they returned to the tables with refreshed vigor and literally knocked their opponents off the table, into oblivion. Miss Rastad and Luntz won only four points in the third game, but proved their mettle by winning 17 and 18 points, respectively, in the next two frames. The winners became such only by changing their tactics in order to avoid Luntz' southpaw barrages. Final scores were 15-21, 17-21, 21-4, 21-17, and 21-18.

STATE QUINTET OFF TO WAR; FIRST FOE IS FRESNO'S SQUAD

Jack Madigan, "Abused" Center of Gaters, Improves From Poor Early Season Form

Warning: Racqueteers On Way Here!

Staters Take Their Tennis As Serious Business

Now that Old Man 1937 has gone the way of all flesh (or calendars!) young people's thoughts turn to many things—and not all of them are related to love. One of these interests, which will soon become more obvious, now that the days are getting shorter, is that "fine oulde spourte of the courte," tennis. State will have to wait quite some while, it is safe to say, to get another player of the calibre of the "Bulldog," Ronny English.

ENGLISH ALONE

In spite of the fact that he came through the whole season without defeat, as he had also done the three previous years, Ronny was not blessed with teammates who were able to come through very often. It is a lamentable fact that the Gaters managed to win only one match during the season, and—worse yet—lost to the so-called Powell 'Street Orphans, more correctly known as the Rams of San Francisco Junior College.

This year the net squad will have to start at rock bottom and build for the future. Three men who rated very nearly the same place during the 1937 season will, in all probability, battle it out for the number one position. The diminutive Billy Hammond, the muscular Roderick Kavanagh, and the lithe Doug Crary are the three who should carry the brunt of the honors this coming season. Crary looks to be the class of the trio, having played second man for the greater part of the past season and teamed up with English in the first doubles; however, Kavanagh's imported "Eastern" strokes and Hammond's speed of foot are hard to deny.

VETS. RETURN

Other men from last year's squad who will probably develop into varsity material are Nick Vogulkin and Ed Euers. They got much experience in the past campaign, and should benefit from it.

Joe Rosen, Charley Carson, and Lou Morrison will join English in the list of those who will not be able to carry State's banners.

Return of Wolff May Bolster Jayvee Squad

After four unsuccessful starts in succession, the State Junior Varsity basketball team under the tutelage of Coach George Mirande will fill in the absence of the Varsity on their invasion of Fresno Friday by meeting the quintet from the transbay Fruitvale A. C., the Flying A's filling the preliminary spot with a tilt with the casabans on the Fruitvale 130-pound team.

Saturday the Mirande-men will take on the Sacred Heart casaba tossers while the Flying A's meet the 130's from the high school. The game may not prove to be a State victory, but it has all the promises of being a hard-fought, close game.

SQUAD MAY SURPRISE

The fortune of the Jayvees may take a sudden turn for the better this week end due to the return of the frosh star, Bob Wolff, to the team. In the Galileo game, which State lost so disastrously, he was on the bench due to a mouth injury sustained during an intra-mural game while playing for the Rover Boys.

JAYVEES WIN THREE

So far this season, the Jayvees have met seven teams, winning the first three and then dropping four in a row. In only one of the games, however, was the team outclassed, and then by the crack Galileo team, and without the services of Wolff. How close all the games were is shown by the following scores: State 22, Utopia Parlor, N.S.G.W., 20; State 21, Signal Oil 20; State 42, Primrose A. C. 27; Alameda Elks 23, State 20; St. Ignatius 28, State 24; Galileo 40, State 24, and Lowell 27, State 21.

Noonday Sports Thrown For Loss

With the approach of finals week it is expected that interest in noonday recreation will lag, but it is very probable that it will pick up after registration for the spring semester. An extensive indoor and outdoor program is planned for those who wish a little exercise and fun during the noon hour.

Probably one of the first events will be a mixed doubles badminton tournament, which was postponed from the fall, due to a lack of entries. Others will include intramural baseball and tennis; horeshoe tourney; deck and paddle tennis, ping pong, etc.

"SLIP" NOW TOPS

Fresno Tilt Will End Practice Season

By ALEX EDELSTEIN

An undefeated San Francisco State basketball team goes to the foreign wars, when they desert their own court to take on the Fresno State bulldogs on the Fresno court Friday next. Led by their duo of high-scoring forwards, Billy Hammond and Joe Sanz, with the some through performances of Slip Madigan to bolster the center spot, and with Bill Plutte, Ken Johnson, and Georgie "Porgie" Thayer flashing creditable form at the guard posts, it is likely that the S. F. cagers will come out on the long end of the final score.

SANS SOME PUMPKINS

Not since the cow came around the mountain have State supporters had the privilege of watching so accomplished a cager as Joe Sanz, who has already been the outstanding star in every contest played to date. In the American Creamery tilt Mr. Sanz was pitted against one "Swede" Anderson, who holds down a forward position with the St. Marys Gaels. Mr. Sanz made Mr. Anderson look pretty feeble, on one occasion taking the ball away from Anderson as he dribbled it over the center line, dribbling down to an easy basket. Yes, yes, Mr. Sanz is some pumpkins!

In Billy Hammond, Sanz has an able partner, who, against the Palo Alto Sport Shop last Friday, connected with 19 points, leading all scorers. Real pacans of praise, however, should go to "Slip" Madigan, much abused center of the Gaters, who from a poor early season showing has gradually improved to the point to where he is one of the more able Farmer basketballers. Another of the much-unheralded subs is George Thayer, who is giving Johnson all he wants for the starting guard berth. Eddie Barbano, of whom much is expected, has failed to round into form as yet, but reports are that Barbano is a late starter.

PRACTICE SEASON ENDED

The Friday tilt will mark the beginning of Coach Dan Farmer's real season and will mark finis to the practice season. With the U.S.F. game slated for January 22, the Fresno game should prove a barometer as to the representative strength of the Gater squad, the Fresno cagers being one of the better teams of their locality. With Sanz and Hammond flashing their true form it should be a State victory.

As the varsity will be away on Friday, the junior varsity will take on their toughest foe of the year in the home gym, in the person of the Fruitvale Athletic Club, who have taken on such representative teams as the California 45's, Olympic Club 45's and many other teams of this caliber. The Flying A's will take the floor in the preliminary at 6:45 o'clock.

EXECUTIVE BOARD NOTES

December 6, 1937
The 14th regular meeting of the Executive Board was called to order at 8:20 P. M. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read.

COMMITTEES

Mr. Black reported that his work on the curtains, pictures, etc., in the Student Body Office had been completed.

President Will Smith announced the Strategy Committee's plan to invite Dr. Dexter, State Superintendent of Education to speak to the Students at a rally sometime in January.

The Christmas Jinx plans are well under way. Miss Wilson urged everyone to sell as many tickets as possible.

It was recommended, by the committee appointed that the Newspaper Guild Constitution be accepted.

A second letter to Sacramento requesting the return of several megaphones and band caps was delayed until this week to afford a little more time for action.

Mr. Worth announced that the "razz" edition of the Golden Gater would be out on Wednesday, Dec. 8th.

President Smith thanked Mr. Rees for arranging the Executive Board Party.

Mr. Rees as head of his committee recommended several permanent committees, which would deal with specific problems frequently coming up before the Executive Board. It was further recommended that there be permanent chairman, and revolving committee members—with a term of two months.

OLD BUSINESS

President Smith encouraged suggestions from the board of the Strategy Committee.

A motion was made and seconded that the Newspaper Guild Constitution be accepted. Motion passed.

The following persons were appointed as chairmen of permanent committees and will select their own committee members: Miss Bolander, Committee on Constitutions; Mr. Mirande, Finance Committee (all requests of money); Miss Wilson, Social Committee (all calendar affairs); Mr. Rees, Committee on Internal Relations (conflicts within Student body); Strategy Committee, as a body, Committee on Public Relations (strategy, etc.).

NEW BUSINESS

Miss Bolander was appointed as a delegate to the alumni chapter.

President Will Smith requested that Mr. Decker, as chairman, formulate plans for a future alumni association (to include future graduates).

Mr. Zech was appointed as Chairman of the Deputations Committee, which will represent State in visits to the different High Schools next term.

It was suggested by President Smith that a questionnaire be distributed at enrollment time to find out how much money each Student spends where he spends it, etc., in order that pressure may be brought to bear on different concerns when securing ads for the Franciscan and Golden Gater.

March 12, 1938 was requested by Mr. Black as the tentative date for next term's Freshman Dance.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:50 P. M. to be followed by the Executive Board party.

Respectfully submitted,
EDITH WHITE,
Secretary.

Kappa Delta Pi

Kappa Delta Pi, National Educational Society, will hold its semi-annual initiation today on the campus. Those to be taken in are Mae Somers, Paula Hacker, Bill Clinkenbeard, Wilfred Yeaman, Kay Bailey, Helene London, Georgina Thomas, and Juanita Krumlinde. President Virginia Kyriazi will supervise the ceremonies.

San Francisco State's chapter, Gamma Sigma, sent delegates to the Regional Conference at Fresno on Saturday, December 11. Headed by Leon Minear, the delegation included David Fox, Mr. Carlos Mundt, Dolores Goetzee and Virginia Kyriazi.

Christmas Jinx
Termed Success

In the Women's Gym on December 10, the Executive Board gave their annual "Christmas Jinx," termed as one of the most successful dances of the year.

Over fifty dollars in cash and quantities of canned goods were turned over to the nursery school to assist needy families.

"The executive board thanks everyone who so nobly did their part in making the charitable affair a success," stated Dawn Wilson, chairman.

Franciscan Bulletin

The following picture appointments have been announced for tomorrow: High Freshmen at 12:10; High Sophomores at 12:25; High Juniors at 12:35, and Kappa Delta Pi at 1:00 (retake).

This will be the last appointment or these pictures. "This is positively the last chance to take these pictures," declared Bill Buchan, Franciscan editor. "Unless they are taken tomorrow they will not be included in the book."
